Chief, CI/OA

Deputy Director of Security (Investigations and Support)

C-15651

1. At the request of [redacted], Chief, SR/I/DCB, the Subject was interviewed and polygraphed at a covert site in Washington on 14 December 1956. The Subject was previously afforded a polygraph examination on 25 February 1956. The test results at that time were deemed to be less than accurate because of the physical condition of Subject at the time. The test was conducted to clarify the significance of any reactions noted earlier.

2. The answers to the following questions are set forth as noteworthy information:

3. Are you now known as _____?

Answer: Yes. (No significant reaction).

4. Have you ever used another name for intelligence activities?

Answer: No. (Initial reaction, however, on subsequent query no reaction).

6. Are you withholding from me the names of any members of your immediate family now living in the USSR?

Answer: No. (Initial reaction, however, no reaction on subsequent query).

8. Have you ever been a member of the Communist Party?

Answer: No. (Weak reaction - no admissions).

10. Have you ever been sympathetic to Communism?

Answer: No.

10a. Are you now sympathetic to Communism?

Answer: No.

20. Have you told anyone about your present assignment with the American Government?

Answer: No.

NAZI WAR CRIMES DISCLOSURE ACT
DATE 2005

21. Since your arrival in the United States, had any intelligence service approached you not known to us?

Answer: No. (Initial reaction, no reaction on subsequent query).

22. Are you now working for any other intelligence service?

Answer: No. (No significant reaction).

23. Do you have any secret correspondence with anyone?

Answer: No. (No significant reaction).

3. Based on an overall analysis of Subject's charts, it is the examiner's opinion that Subject has been substantially truthful in his answers to the pertinent questions asked of him. It does not appear that he is working for any other intelligence organization at this time. It appears that Subject had been sympathetic to Communism in the past, however, it does not appear that he is now sympathetic to Communism. Subject's reaction to membership in the Communist Party appears to be inconsistent and based on an overall analysis of the Subject's charts, it is the examiner's opinion that Subject has not been a member of the Communist Party.
